

Phone: 970-491-1877

Office: Department of Economics, C-312A Clark

Email: szahran@colostate.edu

Page: http://www.researchgate.net/profile/Sammy_Zahran

Sammy Zahran is an Associate Professor of Demography in the Department of Economics. He is also Co-Director of the Center for Disaster and Risk Analysis. Sammy is also an Associate Professor in the Department of Epidemiology in the Colorado School of Public Health. From 2012-2014, he was Robert Wood Johnson Health and Society Fellow at Columbia University. In 2011, he was awarded the Alumni Promise Award from the University of Tennessee. In 2010, he was awarded a Monfort Professorship by Colorado State University. He received the Water Pik, Inc. Excellence in Education Award in 2010. In 2009, he received a resident fellowship in the School of Global Environmental Sustainability. In 2008, he was awarded the Best of Paper of the Year by the American Planning Association. His research focuses on maternal and child health outcomes resulting from exposure to anthropogenic and natural hazards. His published research appears in Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, Risk Analysis, Risk and Uncertainty, Ecological Economics, Environmental Science and Technology, Climatic Change, Science of the Total Environment, Environmental Research, Environment International, American Journal of Public Health, and the International Journal of Epidemiology.